dressed police uniforms and helped repel the segregationist demonstrators.

An FBI spokesman at Washington said he would not dignify Pruder's statement with a reply.

There was no comment on the "alliance" charge from the Justice Department, which previously had rejected a request for an investigation filed by a segregationist leader.

One of those who had complained to the city board was Mrs. Dale Alford, wife of the Arkansas Congressman. Mrs. Margaret Jackson, president of the segregationist League of Central High Mothers, also had protested breaking-up of the demonstration.

Seven white students — three at Central and four at Hall High — have been transferred at their request from classes attended by Negroes.

Such transfers are authorized by a 1938 law, which has not been tested in the courts.

Supt. Terrell Powell said the transfers were made under a policy of "obeying every valid law pertaining to operation of the schools."

of Yellowstone Park

The quake first struck near midnight Monday at Hebgen Dam and further downstream in the Madison River valley, famous trout fishing country.

There were an estimated 22,000 to 25,000 vacationers in Yellowstone Park when the quakes hit, but no one was reported hurt there. Earth slides closed some roads in the western side of the park.

Additional light tremors north of Hebgen Dam were felt Tuesday night, but caused no damage.

None of the famous scenic wonders of the huge summer playground was damaged. Old Faithful geyser, about 40 miles south-east of Hebgen Dam, continued to throw its fountain of boiling water skyward on the hour.

Although southwestern Montana got the quakes' most devastating blows, tremors were reported in British Columbia, Washington, Idaho, Utah, Wyoming and both Dakotas.

The quake victims were camped along the Madison River, it flows from Yellowstone Park westward, then northward to join the Jefferson and Gallatin rivers at Three Forks, Mont., to form the Missouri River.

Capitalists on Display in Russia

By A. I. GOLDBERG

MOSCOW (AP) — Three real live capitalists went on display at the American exposition today.

Introduced to crowds of Russian visitors were Lynn L. Bollinger of Norwood, Mass., and E. M. Black and Richard Karasik of New York.

Bollinger spent two sessions of 20 minutes each in the aluminum-lined main building, answering questions from Russians about the Helio Aircraft Corp.

The questions were put in friendly humor and Bollinger's responses were in the same vein.

Vladimir Shvaid of the U.S. Department of Labor served as interpreter.

Black was introduced as the head of the American Sealek Corp., which operates seven plants in the United States.

Karasik heads the Jaelin Stationery Co.

All three are members of the young presidents organization that arrived in the Soviet Union 67 strong Monday for a 20-day tour that is to include Moscow, Kiev, Kharkov, Stalingrad, Sochi and Leningrad.

Some guide at the fair suggested it would be a good idea to put up several of the young presidents — men who made their mark early — plainly labeled as capitalists.

U.S. Information Agency aides seized on the suggestion.

Bollinger volunteered to appear and answer questions between showings of movies of American life.

He was introduced as a former Harvard professor of business administration who, with Prof. Otto O. Koppin of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, sank his savings in 1949 in an aircraft, which Bollinger, as an engineer, helped design. It was explained that this company, as a public corporation, has about 300 owners in all walks of life.

Bollinger told questioners his workers average $2.20 an hour, work a 4-hour week, never strike, are able to buy automobiles, receive graduated vacations — and all their children receive education because, after all, education is compulsory in Norwood.

There was good natured rivalry when he told the crowd his base pay was $12,000, that the company lost a little money last year and hopes for profits next year.

Asked whether he was happier as a professor or a plant owner, Bollinger said he didn't know, but being a professor was easier.

Ike's Brother Brought Back New Proposals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Milton Eisenhower is reported to have brought to his brother, the President, a new proposal by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev for a long-term solution on Berlin.

Authoritative sources said today Khrushchev unveiled his plan at a private meeting with Milton Eisenhower during his recent trip with Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Khrushchev's proposal was said to be essentially that the Soviets will agree to let the West German government take over Communist-ruled West Berlin, with guaranteed access to the city, provided the Western Allies withdraw from there.

Some State Department officials were strongly opposed to the plan.

The East-West foreign ministers conference at Geneva broke up in deadlock last month after 1½ weeks of argument over Germany.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter accused Moscow of seeking to oust the Allies from West Berlin so as to pull the city inside the Iron Curtain.

English Duke Is Hurt in Wreck

LONDON (AP) — The Duke of Bedford, 42, was critically injured in an automobile accident in the south of France today, his secretary said.

The tall, bespectacled duke has been planning to visit the United States in October to appear on Star football game Saturday night at War Memorial Stadium.

Donald Durham arrived Saturday from Des Moines, Iowa to join Mrs. Durham and Elsie for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Durham and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitaker.

Miss Mary Jewelle Herring and Miss Ginger Cruse spent part of last week in Little Rock where Miss Cruse was the guest of Miss Carolyn Love. Miss Herring visited morning she attended a morning coffee given by Miss Barbara Brown honoring Miss Joan Yancey and Saturday morning she attended the wedding of Miss Yancey to Steven Lane at Westover Hill Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Coy Dewoudy and Mrs. Thomas Dewoudy, Brenda and Sharon of Gordon spent Friday in Texarkana.

Mrs. Bess Dodds and Mrs. Mildred Dickerson of Hope visited Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Durham and other friends Friday.

matter of FACT

The ukulele, a small instrument of the guitar family, seems as much a part of the Hawaiian Islands as the hula. Actually, Hawaiians didn't know about the instrument until it was imported by Portuguese immigrants around 1877. "Ukulele" is a Hawaiian word meaning "jumping insect" or "flea" and was probably given to the instrument because of the movements of the fingers when a person plays it.

Train Plunges Into a Big Loaded Truck

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — A Rock Island Lines switch engine plowed into a huge trailer-truck loaded with oil well pipe at a downtown crossing today, smashing the truck cab.

The truck driver was pinned in the wreckage for more than an hour but escaped with minor injuries.

Lengths of pipe flew from the trailer when the locomotive collided with the big truck. Traffic was blocked temporarily by the debris.

James M. Wilson, 38, of Kilgore, Tex., the truck driver, lay on the seat of the cab while police, firemen and volunteers worked to free him.

Authorities said the truck cab was crushed "like paper being wadded."

Fuel from the truck flooded the intersection where the collision occurred but there was no fire.

The switch engine, which had been pulling about a dozen freight cars, was damaged.

Engineer E. S. Gussard of El Dorado said the train was moving slowly with whistle blowing and bells ringing as it approached the crossing. He said he saw the truck nearing the intersection but thought it would stop.

Wilson said it was too late to halt his truck when he saw the train.

He was taken to a hospital for observation and released after emergency treatment. The worst of his injuries was a minor scratch on his right hand.

The truck belonged to Sabine Pipe and Supply Co. of Kilgore.

Shower cover Central Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Showers covered much of Central Arkansas yesterday and today.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said Georgetown, a small town on the White River near Augusta, had the heaviest rainfall in the state, 3.10 inches. Little Rock received 2.35 inches. A number of other towns recorded an inch or more of rain.

The Weather Bureau said there were no reports of flooding or other damage from wind and lightning which accompanied some of the showers. State Police said no roads were closed because of rains.

More rain was in prospect today, the Bureau added.

Appeal Filed by Dollarway Dist.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Dollarway School Board yesterday filed notice of appeal in U. S. District Court from an order to admit three Negroes to the Dollarway School Sept. 8.

Herschel Friday Jr., board attorney, said an appeal motion would be mailed today to the eighth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis. He said he would ask the appellate court to stay the integration order pending hearing of the appeal.

District Judge Axel J. Beck Monday refused to delay his order.

The appeals court is in summer recess but two judges could act on the stay request.

Friday said that if a decision or stay couldn't be obtained from the appeals court before scheduled school opening there was a "possibility" the board would delay the opening.

"We want to exhaust all our legal rights," he said, "and feel it is imperative that this be done before school opens."

Friday said a decision on whether an appeal would be taken to the U. S. Supreme Court if the appeals court ruling is against his client would not be made until after some decree is handed down.

He indicated, however, that there probably would be an appeal to the highest court if necessary.

Hendrix-Baldwin Wed in Afternoon Ceremony

Miss Annette Hendrix, daughter of Sen. and Mrs. Olen Hendrix of Antoine and Jack Baldwin, son of Mrs. Fayte Baldwin of Searcy and the late Mr. Baldwin, pledged their vows at a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon, Aug. 9 in the Antoine Church of Christ with Dr. Clark Stevens officiating. Darwin and James Hendrix, brothers of the bride, were candle lighters.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of silk peau de soie fashioned with a scooped neckline outlined with seed pearls. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a Biolo topped with an orchid.

Miss Betty Sue Clark of Bakersfield, Calif., her only attendant, wore a frock of pale green tulle and her flowers were yellow feathered carnations.

Joe Baldwin served his brother as best man and John Baldwin, also a brother and the bride's brother, Gerald Hendrix were ushers.

A reception followed at the home of the bride.

After a trip to the Rocky Mountains, the couple will reside in Little Rock where Mr. Baldwin will attend the University of Arkansas.

Chicago Boosts League Lead to 4½ Games

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Time was when folks knew Gerry Staley as the starting pitcher who always just missed being a 20-game winner in the National League. Now, as a reliever, he has become the Chicago White Sox lock-up guy in their run for the American League pennant.

The 6-foot right-hander, two days shy of 39, helped push the White Sox into the largest lead of the year in the tight AL race Tuesday night, giving up just one hit in three shutout innings of relief for a 3-4 comeback victory over Baltimore and a 4½-game bulge over Cleveland.

Staley scored the winning run for the White Sox, breaking a 4-4 tie on Nellie Fox's two-out double in the eighth inning. That hoisted the White Sox six games ahead of Cleveland in the last column after the second place Indians had been clubbed by their fourth straight defeat, 11-4, by Washington.

The New York Yankees, 12½ games behind, broke a tie for third with Baltimore by beating Detroit 5-3. Boston tied Kansas City for sixth by defeating the A's 5-4.

In the National League, Don Newcombe blanked San Francisco on eight hits after Cincinnati whipped the Giants 7-0 and cut their lead to two games. Second-place Los Angeles blew a 5-1 lead, but defeated third-place Milwaukee 7-6 in 13 innings. Philadelphia beat St. Louis 2-1 in the only other game scheduled.

Jim Baxes' 13th home run gave Cleveland a 3-1 lead in the fourth inning, but the Senators then walked across six runs in the sixth against Jim Perry (8-5). Lennie Green counted three with his second home run and Roy Sievers scored two with his 7th.

The Senators finished with 17 hits while Russ Kemmerer (7-12), winning his second straight after dropping six in a row, gave up nine hits for his first complete game since June 23.

A two-run homer by Yogi Berra, his 17th, and Hector Lopez' solo 16th wrapped it up for the Yankees in the third against Don Mossi (11-7). Art Ditmar (6-8) won it, blanking the Tigers on five hits until the eighth, when he needed Whitey Ford's relief.

Gene Stephens' sacrifice fly did it for Boston in the ninth after the Red Sox had blown a 4-0 lead. Mike Fornieles (3-2) won with Ray Herbert (13-9) the loser, both in relief.

Third League Hopes to Be Ready by 1961

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Leaders of the Continental League vowed today to move full steam ahead to organize their embryo circuit with eight teams and acquire the necessary players to operate as a major league by 1961.

Greatly encouraged by the support given by baseball's top brass at Tuesday's day-long meeting, Continental League President Branch Rickey and organizer William A. Shea said they will go to work, adding three cities to their current five-team circuit.

The founding cities are New York, Toronto, Houston, Denver and Minneapolis-St. Paul. Then they will huddle with American and National League Presidents Joe Cronin and Warren Giles to work out a system for acquiring players.

Acceptance is subject to the newly formed league complying with requirements, including minimum stadium capacity, financial requirements, population of franchise cities, and a pension plan for the players.

Shea, who admitted entering the meeting with some misgivings, was elated with the outcome. Commissioner Ford Frick and his major league committee promised the new league met specified requirements.

"There never was any problem in regards to our complying with all of baseball's rules and regulations," Shea said. "We're fully aware of the problems concerning territorial rights and players. We expect no difficulty acquiring the territory and players."

Rickey, named president Tuesday morning, termed the results of the meeting with his former associates as "splendid."

The 77-year-old Rickey, who relinquished his stock in the Pittsburgh Pirates as well as the chairmanship of its board of directors to accept his new post at a $50,000 a year salary, foresaw no problem at all in acquiring players.

Dodgers Shave Giants' Lead in National

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Newcombe is back in business helping the Dodgers along in a National League pennant scrap, even though his paycheck now comes from the Cincinnati Reds.

Big Newk, the big guy of the Dodgers' staff before he was washed up because of arm and back trouble, pitched an eight-hit shutout for the Reds Tuesday night, whipping San Francisco 7-0 and trimming the Giants' lead over second-place Los Angeles to two games.

The Dodgers, winning two in a row for the first time in more than two weeks, closed in with a 7-6 victory over third-place Milwaukee in 12 innings, beating southpaw ace Warren Spahn the Braves' seventh pitcher, for the fifth time this season.

That left the Braves four games behind the Giants, who open a two-game series in Milwaukee tonight while the Dodgers start a two-game set at Cincinnati against the sixth-place Reds.

Philadelphia defeated St. Louis 2-1 in the only other NL game.

In the American League, Chicago's White Sox took a 4½-game lead—largest of the season—by beating Baltimore 6-4 on Gerry Staley's three innings of one-hit shutout relief and Nellie Fox's two-out, two-run double in the eighth.

Washington handed second-place Cleveland a fourth straight defeat, 11-4.

New York beat Detroit 5-3 and Boston defeated Kansas City 5-1.

Newcombe (11-6), winless for almost a month, walked none and struck out four while beating the Giants for the fifth time in six decisions this season.

The Reds won it quick, skidding the Giants to their fifth defeat in the last seven games by scoring six runs in the first three innings.

Gus Bell drove in half of them with a double and home run, his 19th, off loser Ed Fisher (2-4).

The Dodgers, booting away what was left of a 5-1 lead when Wally Moon tripled and Rip Repulski singled off Spahn (16-12). It was Spahn's third relief chore of the year—and he has lost 'em all, dropping two to the Dodgers, who have a 30-14 edge over the lefty veteran.

Duke Snider hit a two-run homer for the Dodgers, his 20th, and tied Ralph Kiner for third on the all-time NL list with 351 behind Mel Ott (511) and Stan Musial (409).

Was Covington also homered (40), for the Braves, who caught the Dodgers in the ninth when Billy Bruton scampered home from first as Don Demeter dropped Aaron's fly to short center with championship of its board of directors to accept his new post at a $50,000 a year salary, foresaw no problem at all in acquiring players.

Senators of South Warn They'll Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern senators have given notice they will fight claw and fang against a strong civil rights bill that has been grafted onto another bill to get it past a committee roadblock.

Sen. Thomas C. Hennings Jr. (D-Mo.) introduced his eight-point bill yesterday as an amendment to a Senate bill on an entirely different subject.

Southern senators have tied up a much weaker civil rights bill in the Judiciary Committee. Hennings is a member of the committee but it is controlled by Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) and other Southerners.

Hennings' move brought immediate cries of outrage from some powerful Southern spokesmen.

This instant reaction pointed up what a noisy, bitter intra-party fight the Democrats seem to be heading for over the issue.

That is why Senate Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) wants to get it over with this year and get some kind of civil rights bill out of the Senate. Johnson doesn't want the issue hanging over his head in 1960, a presidential year. It would split the Democrats and could affect his own chances for the Democratic nomination.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) commented "It seems that Sen. Hennings has gathered together every force bill that has been proposed against the white people of the south during the past several years."

Rules Out Faubus as Presidential Timber

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A South Carolina newspaper editor said here last night that he would rule out Gov. Orval E. Faubus as a possible presidential candidate because the Arkansas has been "so completely shaded" by anti-Southern propaganda.

Thomas R. Waring, editor of the News and Courier at Charleston, said in an interview that he hoped the South would be able to make itself heard at both the Democratic and the Republican national conventions next year.

"Then," he said, "we can base our actions on what we find to be the situation at that time."

Discussing possible avenues for the South to take, Waring said, "we shouldn't waste our strength by throwing away votes on a third party."

BUT PRACTICAL—Although it may never win the admiration of the local yacht club for its grace, German scientists claim this newly developed lifeboat is highly practical. Made of glass fiber, the watertight craft can right itself easily.

DEATH'S TRAGIC CALL — Seconds after Miss Elizabeth Brogna, 20, entered this curbside telephone booth in Boston, a dory being towed by a car broke loose and crashed her to death. The bow of the boat slammed into the booth and the front of its trailer hit Miss Brogna just above the chest.

"I told Katie I was going to fire you," Tendler said with obvious relish. "Now she knows why. She's heard it with her own ears."

Katherine's answer was an impulsive little cry that came straight from her heart.

"Of course not! Not that — not that ever! Vince, I told you, Sandy would never leave Hayfork."

Tendler turned to the door, went out and slammed it behind him.

Sandy pulled a chair up to the kitchen table, sat down in it, then put his quiet gaze on Katherine.

"Seems there's things I should know about, Katie. Tell me."

She sat down across from him and, leaning forward, elbows on the table top, pressed finger tips against her temples, her glance on emptiness.

"Well for sometime I felt Vince was taking a lot for granted, almost as though he had considered himself owner of Hayfork instead of just foreman. He's taken to walking right into this house without a hardly bothering to knock. He did it this morning and it made me angry. So, when he began talking about firing you, I lit into him."

"I reminded him that he was just the foreman, not the owner of Hayfork. And I told him if it ever came to a choice of he or you leaving the ranch, he'd be the one riding out."

"Katie," said Sandy gently, "You're worrying unnecessary, and brooding trouble that ain't here yet. First, like I said before, Rut Dubison ain't going to be bothering anybody for quite some time. When he does, it won't be Hayfork he'll be looking at. He'll be pointing at Grady Haskell. For if he don't even up with Haskell, then he'll lose out with the Beaverhead gang; they won't back him no more."

"Second, the only way you could get Vince Tendler to leave Hayfork, would be to run him off with a gun. You say he's acting like he owned the ranch. Well, that's exactly what he's figuring on—owning it."

Blinking back the mist of tears, she stared, wide-eyed. "How could he ever do that?"

"Simple enough, Katie. By marrying you."

Flushing, she shook her head. "Nothing of the sort has ever occurred to me."

"Why not?"

"For several reasons. The principal one, probably, because I'm not in love with Vince Tendler and never will be."

In Jim Kincen's stable two old box stalls had to be torn out and new ones built. At this task Joe Peete toiled. It was a pleasuring, sweating, labor. Though somewhat winny and offkey, Joe Peete whistled his content.

The distant, mellow reasonance of the hotel dinner gong startled him. Noon already! Where had the hours gone? Putting aside his tools he scrubbed the sweat from his face and surveyed his morning's work with satisfaction. And decided that if he wasted no time getting a quick bite of lunch and then got right back to the job, he'd have one still done by dark.

He went out the back way and over to the river, then along the bank of this to his cabin. Abruptly his head came up. A haze of smoke wreathed the tip of the cabin chimney and the good, suety fragrance of frying meat was in the air.

Representative Claims Acid Tossed at Him

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional associates quoted Rep. Frank Thompson (D-N.J.) today as reporting acid was thrown on him from a passing automobile Tuesday as he drove to his office.

Thompson himself was not immediately reachable for details.

Rep. Stewart L. Udall (D-Ariz.), a close friend of Thompson, said the New Jersey representative told him and a few others about the incident.

Udall said there was an acid hole through Thompson's clothing and a burn on his arm, about the size of a dime.

Thompson was quoted as saying he threw up an arm when he saw the fluid being squirted at him from a syringe, and thereby protected his face.

The Washington Post quoted a source close to Thompson as saying he had been receiving anonymous telephone threats for about two weeks in connection with his activities as a leading backer of the "middle-of-the-road" labor control bill in the House.

The House finally dropped that bill in favor of a broader measure, after turning down a still less stringent one.

Udall, however, said that in talking to him, Thompson mentioned no such threats.

The Arizona said Thompson steered clear of relating the incident to his labor legislation position or any other activity.

Fellow congressmen reported Thompson told them the acid was discharged by a passenger sitting beside the driver in a small panel truck which pulled up alongside his car at a spotlight on Independence avenue near the Capitol.

Thompson related that the driver of the truck then sped away.

Holds Record for College Degree Work

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Robert Neely, an elementary school teacher at Rogers, may hold some kind of record for part-time work on a college degree.

Neely has been attending the University of Arkansas for 15 summers, shooting for a bachelor of science in education. He still has at least two years to go.

The 33-year-old fifth grade teacher, who has attended every summer school session at the University since 1943.

After graduating from high school at Fayetteville, Neely passed a teacher qualification test and spent a summer studying for his degree. Then he landed a teaching job at Rocky Branch in Benton County. Later, while plugging away toward his B.S.E., he moved to a teaching position at Shady Grove. He went from there to Rogers, where he has taught for five years.

Neely commutes 74 miles daily to attend summer school at the university. He and his mother, Mrs. Ursula Neely, live on a 116 acre farm 17 miles from Rogers.

At the end of the current summer session, Neely will be 25 hours short of his degree.

And after all these years, he's beginning to think about a vacation.

Trying to Find Out Who's Holding Bag

NEW YORK (AP) — Postal inspectors today trying to find out who's holding the bag — with $141,950 in missing money in it.

The bag with the money disappeared early this month after it was received at the Liberty, N.Y., post office for shipment to the Federal Reserve Bank here.

It never arrived.

The money belonged to the Sullivan County National Bank.

Joseph Fersch, bank president, said his bank had a receipt from the post office for the money.

Postal authorities said the bag may have been misplaced or misdirected.

Pair Drops Appeal for Robbing Couple

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Robert Miller and Tommy Groffs were committed to the state penitentiary yesterday after plans were dropped to appeal their conviction of robbing an elderly couple of their welfare money.

The men drew 10-year terms after they were convicted of robbing Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sizemore of near Springdale. The couple, both in the 70s, told police Miller and Groffs obtained $137 from them last year by threats.

The attorney for the men abandoned plans to appeal their conviction to the U. S. Supreme Court.

said this, there was a shadow of listlessness in her tone and manner.

"You're worrying too much, Katie," he observed kindly. "You've done all you could. The best of us have done all we could. Now it is up to the fates."

"And now," she said, "Sandy Lee thinks we'd have been snarled if we'd admitted everything to Grady Haskell, right from the first."

Jellick's head bobbed slowly up and down. "Jim Kincen says that Deaton Venable is right about father's chances."

Two Firemen Die in Kansas City Blaze

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — A 20,000-gallon gasoline tank exploded and hurtled forward like a giant flame-thrower, engulfing firemen in a blast of fire.

That's how Tuesday's gasoline bulk station holocaust took its toll. Two firemen died. They were Virgil L. Sams, 28, and Neal K. Owen, 28. Seventeen others, four of them in critical condition, remained in hospitals today.

More than 100 persons suffered burns, other injuries and exhaustion. The loss was estimated at $150,000.

A Continental Oil Co. bulk station of four big horizontal tanks, located behind a filling station at the state lies between the two Kansas Citys, was the scene.

The blaze erupted while two men were filling a tank truck. The cause wasn't known.

No True Bill in Pulaski Manslaughter

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Pulaski County Grand Jury has charged a no true bill in the case of Richard Frederick Henson, charged with manslaughter in the shooting of his wife.

Filing of the no true bill concludes the case since it indicates the grand jury did not consider there was enough evidence for prosecution.

Henson, 32-year-old X-ray technician, was charged in the death of his wife, 30, at their Little Rock home April 11. The couple had four children.

At the time, Henson told officers the shooting occurred accidentally. He said he found his wife in the arms of his cousin, Dave E.

Thompson, a former state representative from Pulaski County.

Henson told police he was holding a pistol, which he thought was unloaded, in his right hand and was shaking his wife with his left hand when the weapon discharged.

Mrs. Henson was shot in the right side. Henson took her to a hospital but she was dead on arrival.

The charge against Henson was dropped yesterday by the prosecutor's office. Prosecutor J. Frank Holl said the grand jury heard all witnesses in the case about a month ago but no formal report ever was issued.

Greek philosopher Epictetus said "Practice yourself in little things, and thence proceed to greater."

Negro to Die for Ashdown Slaying

ASHDOWN, Ark. (AP) — A 21-year-old Negro, Edward Walton Jr., has been sentenced to die for the slaying of a white night watchman.

The all-white jury, including one Negro, deliberated 15 minutes yesterday before finding Walton guilty of first degree murder in the death of Roy Hallman, 61, here June 20. The verdict carries an automatic death penalty. Formal sentence will be pronounced Aug. 26.

Hallman, a watchman at an Ashdown service station where Walton once worked, was robbed, beaten and shot. His body was found the next morning. Walton was arrested when he tried to flee from the station.
